

Assistant Professor - Drawing

Duties: Accomplished artist who specializes in drawing with ability to teach and develop curriculum in a multi-disciplinary art department. Candidates for this position must have the ability to teach all levels of drawing including advanced undergraduate and graduate courses. Familiarity with introductory foundation programs in drawing and visual thinking (2-D, 3-D, color, etc.) as well as knowledge of contemporary approaches to the fine and applied arts is essential. Supervision of graduate teaching assistants required.

Qualifications: MFA or equivalent and a minimum of three years teaching experience at college level or equivalent required. A competitive exhibition record is required.

Rank: Assistant Professor/Tenure Track

Salary: Competitive with experience

Starting Date: September 1, 2009

Deadline: November 17, 2008

Send letter of application, three letters of reference, resume, statement of teaching philosophy, twenty images (slides or CD Power Point slideshow), and a self-address stamped envelope for return of materials to:

Professor Patricia Mayer
Chair, Search Committee
Rutgers, The State University of NJ
Mason Gross School of the Arts
Visual Arts Department
33 Livingston Avenue
New Brunswick, NJ 08901

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, is a leading public research university with an enrollment of 33,000 students on its New Brunswick campus. The Mason Gross School of the Arts is dedicated to professional programs in the arts at graduate and undergraduate levels, and to fulfilling the liberal arts missions of its constituent departments: Music, Theater, Dance, and Visual Arts. The Department of Visual Arts offers a B.F.A and M.F.A. program in fine arts.

Rutgers is an affirmative-action equal-opportunity employer.