

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Clinical Assistant Professor in Dance Education

- Duties: The new Clinical Assistant Professor of Dance will serve as the coordinator and educator for a new Five-Year BFA Degree/Master of Education in Dance Education Degree Program and Two-Year Master of Education in Dance Education Degree Program, offered in collaboration with the Rutgers Graduate School of Education. Candidates should have experience teaching courses in methodology and mentoring student teaching. Responsibilities include departmental administrative duties and committee work as is appropriate for the growth and development of the Dance Education program, including collaborating with the Rutgers Graduate School of Education on matters such as admission to the graduate program, certification requirements, advisement, and licensure. The Department welcomes candidates who are committed to developing relationships with the professional field locally, nationally and internationally.
- Qualifications: Ph.D. or Ed.D. in Dance Education, with experience in teaching K-12. College level teaching, professional dance experience, and substantial dance training are also required. Strong teaching, communication, organizational and interpersonal skills are essential.
- Rank: Clinical Assistant Professor, full-time, multi-year appointment, non-tenure track
- Salary: Appropriate to rank and qualifications
- Starting Date: July 1, 2009
- Deadline: November 30, 2008

A letter of application with vita, a statement of teaching philosophy with particular reference to BFA and Master of Education in Dance Education, and the names of three references should be sent to:

Julia Ritter, Chair of Search Committee
Department of Dance
Mason Gross School of the Arts
Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey
85 George Street
New Brunswick, New Jersey 08901

Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, is a leading public research university with an enrollment of 33,000 students on its New Brunswick campus. The Mason Gross School of the Arts is dedicated to professional programs in the arts at graduate and undergraduate levels, and to fulfilling the liberal arts missions of its constituent departments: Music, Theater, Dance, and Visual Arts.

Rutgers University is an affirmative-action-equal-opportunity employer.